

Splunk Certification

Certify-in-Place Promotion

Despite the challenges 2020 has brought, both at work and at home, Splunk Education has seen incredible dedication and hard work from all its students.

To thank you for your efforts, we're offering a limited-time discount on our certification exams.

From August 1 through October 31, all eligible candidates can register for one certification exam for a $50 registration fee.

See next slide for more details...

How it works

To take advantage of this limited-time offer, follow the steps outlined in our exam registration tutorial and use the code STUDYUPBUTTERCUP at checkout.

This code can only be used upon checkout and cannot be combined with any other code (including existing exam vouchers or EDU training credits). For more details, please see full Terms & Conditions.

For more information on testing center availability near you, please visit the Pearson VUE COVID-19 Update Page. Taking the test at home? No problem! Please see our Online Proctored Exam Delivery Overview for all the details.
